

GAR Live Brazil

Co-chairs: José Emilio Nunes Pinto and Nigel Blackaby

Monday 7 May 2012

JW Marriott, Rio de Janeiro

PROGRAMME

10.00am: Welcome and opening remarks

José Emilio Nunes Pinto and Nigel Blackaby

10.15am: Session One: Brazil's future as an international arbitration seat

In this session international arbitrators and local practitioners will share experiences and observations on Brazil's current arbitration law and practice. They will then, aided by inquisitorial questioning from moderators, debate Brazil's prospects as an arbitration bar seat and what the Brazilian bar can do to position it as a global arbitration player.

Co-Chairs: Nigel Blackaby and Arnaldo Wald

Participants:

Bernard Hanotiau
Juan Fernández-Armesto
Donald Donovan
José Emilio Nunes Pinto
Gilberto Giusti
Pedro Batista Martins

12.00pm - 13.15pm: Session Two: Symposium

A Tylney Hall-style session comprising of rolling discussion facilitated by two experienced names. Topics for discussion will be collected in advance by the audience, but it's expected that they'll include issues around conflicts and disclosure, evidence and advocacy.

Co-Chairs: José Emilio Nunes Pinto and Fernando Mantilla Serrano

13.15pm: Lunch

14:00: Session Three: Hot topics session

A series of focussed briefings from around the world on key cases, developments and other hot news from international and Latin American jurisdictions. Speakers will focus on the practical takeaway for Brazilian IA specialists/advisers. Jurisdictions to be covered include Colombia, France, UK, Portugal, Spain, US and China-Asia.

Co-Moderators: tbc

Participants:

Eduardo Silva Romero – Colombia
Matthieu de Boisseson - France
Christian Leathley - UK
José Miguel Júdece - Portugal
Juan Fernández-Armesto - Spain
Dan Tan - China-Asia

16.00pm - 16.30pm - Coffee break

16.30pm – 17.45pm: Session Four: GAR Live Debate

"This house believes the use of legal experts in IA should be the exception, not the rule"

Participants:

Chair: tbc
Debaters

For: Sophie Lamb

Against: Christian Leathley and Valéria Galindez

Judges: Bernard Hanotiau (president), Carlos Alberto Carmona, and João Bosco Lee

17.45pm – 18.00pm: Chairs' wrap and predictions

Nigel and Jose Emilio look into a crystal ball.